

Dear guests of the “George Enescu” International Symposium

We are welcoming you to this prestigious event, part of the 20th anniversary edition of the “George Enescu” International Festival.

The program of the first day, September 8, is:

Starting with 7.00 you may have breakfast, in the restaurant (complimentary).

Afterwards please walk to Cantacuzino Palace.

It is at the end of the short street on the right hand as you exit the hotel (Gheorghe Manu St.). You will see the Palace when you get at the first traffic light. It is a big building, at your right, on the left side of Calea Victoriei St. (you must cross the street). You are expected to arrive at the Palace between 8.40-8.50. Time to walk from the hotel to the Palace is approx. 5 minutes.

The festive opening ceremony starts at 9.00, in the Aula of the Palace.

First speaker of the symposium will be Stefan Angi, at 9.30.

There will be a first break (30') at 11.10 AM,

a second break (60') at 2.10PM and a third break (15') at 4.25 PM.

Last presentation will be at 5.30PM and we will close first day's session at 5.55PM

Please attend all the presentation and do not get diverted by other invitations or by other events, not connected to the symposium.

In the evening you are invited to a choral concert, at “Mihail Jora” Hall of the National Radio Company (62-64 General Berthelot St.), from 7.00PM. If you prefer symphonic music there is another concert at 7.30, at the Sala Palatului Hall, with London Symphony conducted by Romanian Horia Andreescu, performing Glazunov's violin concerto (soloist Nicola Benedetti) and Mahler's 6th symphony.

Access to all concerts of the “George Enescu” International Festival is granted to all the Symposium speakers, by presenting the plastic tag with your name on it.
